At the Heart of our Work

We market the products of local Arab farmers while providing jobs to Arab women and teaching them crafts to increase their income. Sindyanna provides fair return to producers with all profits plowed into initiatives for women's empowerment and Jewish-Arab cooperation.

Fair Trade

Working with the disadvantaged Arab population in Israel, we form close partnerships with our producers based on integrity, trust, and mutual respect.

Jewish-Arab Cooperation

The common effort at Sindyanna can be the microcosm for a society based on solidarity and sisterhood.

Women's Empowerment

We offer Arab women access to economic opportunities, education, and job-training so they can become agents of change in their communities.
